BEFORE THE DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE OF
THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
OF THE STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Application of
MARC O. GLAUSER to Act as a Sales Agent

ORDER ON APPLICATION FOR RENEWAL

Case No. RE-10-51860

On September 22, 2010, Marc O. Glauser (Applicant) submitted to the Utah Real Estate Commission (Commission) and the Division of Real Estate (Division) an application to renew his license to practice as a sales agent. The application was reviewed in an informal proceeding to determine whether Applicant meets the licensing requirements of Utah Code § 61-2f-203(1) (2010). The presiding officer, on behalf of the Division and pursuant to a grant of authority from the Commission, now makes the following analysis and order.

REASONS FOR DECISION

On January 7, 2010, Applicant was charged in the Salt Lake City Justice Court with driving while impaired as amended from a charge of driving under the influence of alcohol. Applicant pleaded guilty. It is unclear from the record whether the court entered a conviction in the case or held the plea in abeyance. Regardless, Applicant was ordered to serve one day in jail with the option of performing 24 hours of community service in lieu of jail time. He was also sentenced to an additional suspended jail term of 179 days, fined $1,890, placed on supervised probation for 12 months, and ordered to complete treatment and to participate in a victim impact panel.

Utah Code § 61-2f-301 (2010) requires real estate licensees to report a criminal conviction or plea in abeyance to the Division within ten business days. Applicant failed to report this case as required.

Utah Code § 61-2f-203(1) (2010) requires that the Division and Commission determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of honesty, integrity, truthfulness, reputation, and competency. Utah Administrative Code § R162-2-2.11 requires the Division and the Commission to consider an applicant's criminal history in making this determination.

Applicant's criminal history during the past term of licensure demonstrates a lack of respect for the law and for the safety of others, which reflects negatively on his integrity and reputation. Applicant's failure to report his guilty plea to the Division within the time mandated by statute reflects negatively on his honesty and competency. Therefore, Applicant does not meet the requirements of Section 61-2f-203(1) (2010) for unrestricted licensure.

The presiding officer is concerned that Applicant's term of criminal probation is not scheduled to terminate until January of 2011. In mitigation, the presiding officer notes that this incident involves a misdemeanor offense, which appears to be an isolated instance of poor judgment rather than an episode in a long history of criminal behavior. In addition, the presiding officer's concerns are mitigated by Applicant's statement in his letter of explanation to the effect that he has learned from this mistake and is in compliance with all of the terms of his probation. Therefore, the presiding officer finds that issuing a probationary license is justified.

ORDER

Based on the above analysis, Marc O. Glauser's application for licensure as a sales agent is granted with restriction. The license is placed on probation for a period of one year from the date of this order. At the conclusion of this one-year period, the Division may lift the probationary status from Mr. Glauser's license upon his written request, including an attestation that he has had no further criminal activity. During the term of his license, Mr. Glauser shall comply with all laws and with the rules regulating his profession, including all reporting requirements, and shall conduct himself in a way that demonstrates his qualification and fitness for continuing licensure as a real estate professional.

This order shall be effective on the signature date below.

DATED this 30th day of September, 2010.

UTAH DIVISION OF REAL ESTATE

Jennie T. Jonsson, Presiding Officer
Division of Real Estate
